Eric Goldman
An Artist Unleashed
2820 West Jerome Street
Chicago, IL 60645-1231

To Whom It May Concern:

During the past five years it has been my pleasure to use the services of Eric Goldman on several web presence development projects. Throughout my experience with Eric he has always demonstrated the highest level of design skill, technical skill, patience, diplomacy and business sense. His services are a remarkable value for the fee he charges.

I am a tough and demanding client. Eric has always proved himself as being up to the challenge. I plan to continue to use his services for all of my web needs in the future.

Sincerely,

Frank Novak
